THE humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon and Clergy, of the Dioceſe of Peterborough: Preſented to Her Majeſty by his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury.

May it pleaſe Your moſt Sacred Majeſty,

AMongſt the many ineſtimable Bleſſings God has been pleaſed to make Your Majeſty the glorious Inſtrument of to Your People, this of the Union of Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland may juſtly claim the Firſt Place.

As Your Majeſty's wonderful Succeſſes Abroad have made us a flouriſhing and formidable Nation; ſo this Union at Home will, with the Bleſſings of God, make our Happineſs laſting and perpetual.

What Enemies ſhall the Kingdom of Great Britain need to fear? What proud and ambitious Prince ſhall dare to infeſt its Coaſts? What Combination of Prieſts and Jeſuites from Rome, to plot againſt and blow up our Pure, Reformed Religion; whilſt like Brethren we dwell together in Unity, and have Your Majeſty, or in Succeſſion ſome other Proteſtant Hero like Your Majeſty, on the Throne?

God grant that, in a Conſcientious Obedience to His Laws and Your Majeſty's often repeated Exhortations, we may make known our Moderation towards all Men; and exerciſe Meekneſs, Patience, Forbearance, and Forgiveneſs, towards one another; that we may not, by our Unchriſtian Feuds and Animoſities, forfeit the Divine Favour we have had ſo large Experience of, and fruſtrate the bleſſed Deſign of Your Majeſty's unparallel'd Goodneſs and Wiſdom in bringing about ſo great and glorious Things for us.

And God grant that Your Majeſty may long reign over us in an undiſturb'd Fruition of the mighty Bleſſings You have procured for us, and very late exchange Your Earthly Crown for one of Glory and Immortality.

The Three following Addreſſes from the County Palatine of Lancaſter, and the Boroughs of Leverpoole and Preſton, in the ſame County, were preſented to Her Majeſty by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Derby, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and others of the Gentry and Clergy, of Your County Palatine of Lancaſter, met together at the General Aſſizes holden for the ſaid County March 27. 1707.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

AS we have new Occaſions every Year to Congratulate and be Thankful to Your Majeſty, for the great Succeſſes of Your Arms Abroad and wiſe Councils at Home; ſo we of this, and the reſt of the Northern Counties, have the moſt Reaſon to rejoice that Your Majeſty hath overcome thoſe Difficulties, in procuring a firm and laſting Union betwixt Your Kingdoms of England and Scotland; which, tho' aimed at by many of Your Predeceſſors, could never be accompliſhed but in Your glorious Reign.

This will for Ever ſecure us from the Incurſions and Ravages which have been heretofore ſo ſeverely felt amongſt us.

We cannot but think that this Union will not only unite Your Two Kingdoms, but more particularly the Hearts of all Your Subjects of Great Britain in their firm Allegiance, Duty and Affection, to Your Majeſty; which we, to the beſt of our Power, ſhall always be endeavouring to effect, as becomes Your Majeſty's Dutiful, Faithful and Loyal, Subjects.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes, of Your Majeſty's ancient Borough and Corporation of Leverpoole in the County Palatine of Lancaſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

YOur Majeſty's moſt happy and auſpicious Reign hath already miniſtred frequent Occaſions to Your Loyal Subjects to approach Your Throne with Addreſſes of Joy and Congratulation: Your Majeſty's Arms have glorioufly triumph'd over Your Enemies Abroad, and Your wiſe Councils have been equaly ſucceſsful in the Adminiſtration of Affairs at Home; particularly the accompliſhing of the Union of Your Two Kingdoms, (a Work which has baffled the Attempts of all Your Royal Predeceſſors) demonſtrates that no Difficulties are inſuperable to ſo great and good a Queen. This will make Your Majeſty to be the more highly ador'd by Your Allies, and to be the more formidable to Your Enemies: Hereby the Eſtabliſhment of the Church of England, and the future Peace and Tranquility of Great Britain, are happily ſecur'd; and, for the perfecting of this great Work, we humbly intreat Your Majeſty to accept of our hearty and ſincere Thanks and Acknowledgments.

That this and future Ages may reap the Fruits and Advantages of this Union: That Your Majeſty's Arms may always continue to be victorious, until a ſafe and honourable Peace be concluded: That Love and Unity may be religiouſly obſerv'd amongſt our ſelves; and we may ſtrive to out-do one another in our Expreſſions of Duty and Affection towards Your Majeſty: That Your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous; and every ſucceeding Year may, by God's Bleſſing, add ſome new and diſtinguiſhing Glories to Your Sacred Perſon and Government; is the ſincere Wiſh and devout Prayer of Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Obedient Subjects.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, Gentlemen and others of Your Majeſty's Corporation of Preſton in Amounderneſs, in Your County Palatine of Lancaſter, this 15th Day of May, Anno Dom. 1707.

Dread Sovereign,

THE Difficulties Your Majeſty has ſtruggled with, the oppoſite Intereſts You have reconciled, and the inveterate Prejudices in both Nations to an incorporated Union You have removed or ſurmounted, oblige us to admire Your Royal Wiſdom in compleating that Work in ſo little time, which has been the attempt of a whole Century: A Work ſo vaſt and important, that tho' it has been the deſire of all Your good Subjects, yet they durſt ſcarce preſume to expect it, even after ſo many ſtupendious Inſtances of Divine Bleſſings under Your Majeſty's Adminiſtration.

By this Your Majeſty by the Bleſſing of God has effectually ſecured our Religion and Liberties in a Proteſtant Succeſſion, and broken the Meaſures of that Pretender, who whilſt we were divided, waited and hoped an Opportunity to diſturb our Peace.

On this remarkable Occaſion, moſt Illuſtrious Queen, we humbly deſire to congratulate Your Majeſty, not only to teſtify our Satisfaction in the happy Union of this Iſland, but to renew the Aſſurance of our inviolable Reſolution and ardent Affection for Your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Portmen, chief Burgeſſes and Freemen, of Her Majeſty's ancient and loyal Corporation of Orford, in the County of Suffolk: Preſented to Her Majeſty by Thomas Betts Eſq; their Recorder; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE the Mayor, Recorder, Portmen, Chief Burgeſſes and Freemen, of Your Majeſty's ancient and loyal Corporation of Orford, in the County of Suffolk, who have ever been congratulating Your glorious Succeſſes abroad, cannot forbear humbly expreſſing our extream Joy and Satisfaction to ſee Your more glorious Succeſs at home, in Uniting Two divided Nations; Great was the Deſign, and Happy the Execution.

'Tis a peculiar Bleſſing that attends Your Religious Care, that no Difficulty can withſtand it; and what Ages have been labouring after, You with Eaſe have finiſhed.

That Union You have ſo happily effected, we for our Parts will maintain with utmoſt Duty and Sincerity; neither Malice nor Diffidence ſhall influence our Thoughts.

May the God of Peace protect Your Majeſty in all Your Pious Intentions and Undertakings, and ſecure the Bleſſings to us He directs You to manifeſt for Your own Honour, and Great Britain's Good.

Given under our Common-Seal in our Guildhall at Orford aforeſaid, this 17th of June, 1707.

The humble Addreſs of the Conſtables, and others, Inhabitants of Her Majeſty's ancient Borough of Great Marlow in the County of Bucks, together with their Repreſentatives in Parliament: Preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir James Etheredge Kt. and James Chaſe Eſq; their Repreſentatives; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

AMong all the Glories that incircle Your Throne, we, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty in that we conceive ſhines brighteſt there: 'Tis, Madam, the Accompliſhment of the Union between Your Kingdoms of England and Scotland. The fruitleſs Endeavours of former Princes and all their Councils in the like Attempts, muſt convince the World, that nothing, under God, but Your Majeſty's great Wiſdom and the Abilities of Your preſent Miniſtry could have brought the Jarne to Perfection; whereby Your Majeſty has (as much as Humane Wiſdom can) eſtabliſhed to Your People their their Religion and Peace at Home, and Security from Your Enemies Abroad. To which we can add no more than our Prayers to Almighty God for the long Continuance to Your Majesty of so great Prosperity; and that Your Majesty's Generous and Pious Designs may be crowned with being, under God, the chief Instrument of restoring and firmly setling the Rights, Liberties, and Peace, of Europe.

The Three following Addresses from the Counties of Denbigh, Merioneth and Carnarvon, were presented to Her Majesty by the Hon. Lieutenant-General Cholmondeley, in the Absence of the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Cholmondeley, Lord-Lieutenant of North-Wales; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, &c. of the County of Denbigh.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

HEaven has smiled on Your Majesty's Reign, and made it Glorious by many surprizing Victories and Successes, which Your faithful Subjects look upon as the Reward of Your Majesty's Piety and Zeal for the Maintenance and Security of the Church of England as by Law established.

The Union of Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, is a fresh Instance of Your Majesty's tender Regard to the Welfare and Happiness of all Your People. And that the same may fully answer Your Majesty's most gracious Intentions, and prove an universal and lasting Blessing to these Nations, is the sincere Wish and Prayer of Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

To Her Most Excellent Majesty Queen ANNE, of Great-Britain, France, and Ireland.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Custos Rotulorum, Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace, of the County of Merioneth.

MAY it please Your most Gracious Majesty to permit Your obedient and duttful Subjects, a small Remainder of Your ancient and loyal Britons, to approach Your Sacred Person with our most sincere and joyful Congratulations for the happy Union of Your Kingdoms of England and Scotland, in the Monarchy of Great Britain; whereby God hath crown'd the other eminent Successes with which He hath hitherto so remarkably bless'd and adorn'd Your glorious Reign.

May the like Successes ever attend all Your Councils and Undertakings. May You see all Your Subjects constantly united in dutiful Obedience and Loyalty to Your Majesty, and in affectionate Zeal for Your Person and Government, in Peace and Love among themselves, and in the Profession and Practice of that Holy Religion, and in the Communion of that Church of which Your Majesty is so great an Ornament, and under God the chief Support and Defender.

May Your own Kingdoms be blessed with perpetual Peace and Prosperity, and all Europe, by God's Blessing upon all Your Royal Enterprizes, obtain an honourable, safe and lasting Peace.

To Her most Excellent Majesty Queen ANNE, of Great Britain, France and Ireland.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, &c. of the County of Carnarvon.

AS every Year adds to the Glory of Your Majesty's Reign, we cannot but repeat our Congratulation and Joy upon every new Instance of God's Favour and Blessing to Your Majesty and Your People, especially upon the late most seasonable and happy Union of Your Two Kingdoms, so successfully effected by Your most provident and wise Councils and Conduct, whereby the Peace, Prosperity and Strength, of Your now truly powerful and glorious Kingdom of Great Britain is so much advanc'd, the Safety of Your Royal Person and Government, and the Succession in the Protestant Line, are under God so well secured; may God continually add to Your Majesty's Felicity and Glory.

May You still be Victorious over all Your Enemies, and always Reign and Triumph in the Hearts and Affections of Your Loyal Subjects, until after the most long and prosperous Reign on Earth, You are translated to a much more glorious Kingdom in Heaven.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Burgesses, of Her Majesty's ancient Corporation of Northampton: Presented to Her Majesty by Francis Arundell Esq introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Chamberlain.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, being unwilling to omit any, take this Opportunity of assuring Your Majesty of our most real and sincere Affection, which upon all Occasions, and in all Times, we have shew'd to Your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

We are highly sensible of the great Difficulties with which this great Work, the Union of Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, was attended; that they were such, that by the Wisdom and Policy of a whole Century (even whilst the same Religion was by Law established in both Kingdoms) were found invincible; but Your Majesty's Councils at home, like Your Arms abroad, have no such Obstacles.

May all those great Advantages by Your Majesty intended to both Kingdoms, be the happy Event of this wonderful Union, and may Your Majesty see these good Effects while we long enjoy the Blessing of Your Majesty's most auspicious Reign: And may future Ages, having experienced these happy Consequences, find Reason to rejoyce as this now does, and with the like Acclamations and Joy for ever celebrate the Anniversary of its Commencement.

Given under our Common-Seal, this 12th Day of June, in the Sixth Year of Your Majesty's Reign, at a General Assembly at our Guildhall.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs and Citizens of the City of Litchfield: Presented to Her Majesty by Sir Henry Gough, one of their Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects of Your ancient City and Corporation of Litchfield, do humbly presume to congratulate Your Majesty, That the Treaty of Union betwixt Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, (so long in vain attempted) has been at last compleated in Your Majesty's most successful and happy Reign.

We do humbly assure Your Majesty, that we do most sincerely wish it may answer all those glorious Ends You propose or can desire.

And that it may produce a lasting Peace to the whole Island, a continual increase of its Trade, Wealth and Power, and the firmest Security to the Protestant Religion, shall be our constant daily Prayers.

Dated under our Common-Seal, the 5th Day of June, 1707.

The following Addresses have also been presented to Her Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy, in and about the City of Lincoln.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please Your Majesty,

WE have already sincerely and heartily offer'd up our Thanks to God for the happy Union of Your Two Kingdoms, which we have great Reason to believe will be the Foundation of many lasting Blessings to our selves and our Posterity; so we now think it our Duty to return our publick Acknowledgments to Your Majesty for Your great Zeal in carrying on that good Work, and Your Wisdom in the Management of it; whereby You have overcome those Difficulties that were too hard for all Your Predecessors.

This Union is what has long been desired by those who love their Country and their Religion; and the restless Endeavours of our Enemies to prevent it may suffice to convince us how much it may be likely to contribute to the Establishment of both. And here we cannot but admire the Goodness of Your Majesty to Your People, wherein You have exceeded the Example of that great Queen whom You profess to imitate; That You have not out of Jealousie, too incident even to great Princes, left them at Uncertainty, what shall become of them when You are gone, but have been zealous to give them the present Satisfaction, so far as humane Means can do it, That there shall never be wanting a Race of Protestant Princes to preserve their Country in Peace, and their Religion in Purity, to all Posterity.

We humbly beg Leave to assure Your Majesty, That as we shall always retain a very grateful Sense of this, and the many other Blessings we enjoy under Your most auspicious Government; so we shall do what in us lies, that this happy Union of Your Kingdoms may have all the good Effects intended by Your Majesty, and which Providence seems to design for us, if we be not wanting to our selves: We shall avoid all Heats and Animosities, Suspicions and Jealousies; and both preach and practise the Things that make for Peace, and a Union of Hearts and Affections among all Your Subjects. But especially we shall offer up our daily Prayers to God, That He would be pleased still to watch over and preserve Your Sacred Person; That He would direct and bless You in the great Work which You have yet upon Your Hands, for the Preservation of Your People, and the rest of Europe; And that, in His due Time, He would make Your Majesty and Your People long happy together in the secure Enjoyment of an honourable Peace.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses, Freemen, and other the Inhabitants, of Your Majesty's ancient Corporation of Cliderow, in the County Palatine of Lancaster.

WE Your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave (Great Queen) to congratulate Your Majesty upon the most happy and glorious Union of Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, compleated by Your Majesty's most prudent Administration: A Work so often attempted by Your Majesty's Royal Predecessors; but by Divine Providence, after all Your Successes and Victories, reserved to add new Lustre to Your Reign, and immortalize the Glory of the first Queen of Great Britain. We therefore do with unfeigned Hearts assure Your Majesty, That as Your Majesty hath united us into one People, we will (as true Britains) venture our Lives and Fortunes in the Preservation of Your Majesty's Person, Your Crown and Dignity. In Testimony whereof, we have hereunto affixed our Common-Seal, the 22d Day of May, Anno Domini 1707.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Capital Burgeſſes, of Your Majeſty's ancient Corporation of Beverley, in the County of York.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, being proud to take hold of all Opportunities to expreſs our grateful Senſe of Your Majeſty's moſt prudent and juſt Government over us, beg Leave to congratulate Your Majeſty upon Your happy Succeſs in perfecting the long wiſh'd for Union betwixt England and Scotland. May Your Life be long, and Your Reign proſperous, by continuing to be as ſucceſsful over Your Enemies, as You are benficial towards Your Subjects. In Teſtimony whereof, we have hereunto cauſed our Common Seal to be affixed, this 12th Day of June, Anno Dom. 1707.

All which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Turin, June 15. N. S. By Advices from the Valley d'Aoſt we are inform'd, That the Enemy lately appear'd before ſome of our Poſts, at the Foot of the Little St. Bernard, as if they would have attack'd them; but finding our Guards ready to receive them, thought fit to retire without attempting any thing; and, by what we can learn from thoſe Parts, they have laid aſide all Deſigns upon that Valley. The Detachment for Naples, under the Command of Count Thaun, is now paſs'd by Rome; from whence we hear, That the Prince of Caſtiglione, whoſe Fiefs lie within 30 Miles of Naples, has taken Arms in Favour of King Charles the Third; and that ſeveral Partiſans of the Houſe of Auſtria begin to declare publickly for His Catholick Majeſty. The 5th Inſtant, in the Evening, the Earl of Manchester, Her Majeſty's Ambaſſador Extraordinary to the Republick of Venice, arriv'd here from Vienna. His Excellency's Retinue not coming till the next Day in the Afternoon, he deferr'd acquainting this Court with his Arrival till that Time; when he ſent his Secretary to wait on the Marquis de St. Thomas, Secretary of State and Firſt Miniſter to his Royal Highneſs, deſiring to know when he might have the Honour to wait on his Royal Highneſs; who being gone to take the Air at the Venerie, the Secretary acquainted his Excellency in the Evening, That his Royal Highneſs deſir'd to ſee him the next Morning, and had order'd him to offer his Excellency the Honours uſually paid to Ambaſſadors; which his Excellency declined in a very reſpectful manner. The Marquis de St. Thomas had no ſooner left his Excellency, but the Count de Ballian came to wait on him, by the Duke's Order, with the ſame Compliment which the Marquis had made before; to which his Excellency return'd the ſame Anſwer. The 7th in the Morning the Earl of Manchester had the Honour to ſee his Royal Highneſs in private, and was receiv'd with great Marks of Honour. At Night his Excellency had likewiſe the Honour to ſee the Dutcheſs Dowager, and Dutcheſs Conſort; and was receiv'd by both theſe Princeſſes, as well as by the whole Court, with particular Marks of Diſtinction.

The Emperor's Troops, and thoſe of the Allies, which are to form the ſeveral Camps in Piedmont, have paſs'd thro' our Neighbourhood, and will be all encamp'd to Day or to Morrow; after which 'tis believ'd his Royal Highneſs and Prince Eugene will ſoon take the Field: The Day of their Departure is not yet fix'd, but 'tis believ'd will be the 25th Inſtant. Prince Eugene arriv'd here on the 13th at Night from Milan, and has ſince had ſeveral Conferences with his Royal Highneſs, relating to the Operations of the enſuing Campaign. His Royal Highneſs has receiv'd an Expreſs from Oneglia, with Letters from Admiral Shovel, dated the 6th Inſtant, N. S. at Sea, with an Account, That he was then ſailing towards Final with Her Majeſty's Fleet under his Command; where we queſtion not but he is already arriv'd. The Hereditary Prince of Heſſe-Caſſel went poſt from hence this Morning to join his Troops, which are encamp'd at Buſca, near Coni; having ſent his Equipage away Yeſterday. The Britiſh Envoy, and all the Foreign Miniſters reſiding in this Court, will attend his Royal Highneſs in the Field this Campaign.

Francfort, June 23. Our Army in Swabia has made a Movement, by which they are very advantagiouſly encamp'd. The Left is poſted upon a riſing Ground, and the Right behind a little River call'd the Leyn, which is not fordable in that part. The whole Army is in a manner inacceſſible, and there is no way to it but through unfrequented Woods and Vallies. In the Rear we have the River Kocker, and draw our Subſiſtence from Elwangen, Dunkelſpiel and Nordlingen. The Generals Heiſter and d'Erbeville are arrived at the Army, where they expect to be join'd very ſuddenly by the Danes out of Bavaria. The Commanding Officer of Schorndorf is very much cenſur'd for having ſurrendered that Place ſo ſoon, when he had Orders to defend it to the laſt Extremity. At the firſt Approach of the Enemy he made an Appearance of putting the Gariſon in a Poſture of Defence; but as ſoon as he ſaw the Pioneers at Work, and ſome Advances made towards a formal Attack, he deliver'd up the Town without any Capitulation. Our laſt Advices tell us, That on the 18th the Generals were in a Council of War on that Subject. We have nothing certain of the Enemy's Motions. They have ſent a Detachment over the Danube to draw Contributions from the Countries on that ſide the River. We have Advice from Mayence, That the Troops which the Elector Palatine ſends were to arrive this Day within two Hours march of that City.

Paris, June 27. We hear the Duke of Savoy is perfectly recover'd of his Indiſpoſition, and preparing with all Diligence to ſet himſelf at the Head of his Troops, and enter upon Action. We are more than ever apprehenſive of his intended Expedition, having received Advice that the Confederate Fleet is arrived at Final, with a Deſign to favour his Motions, and act in concert with him during the whole Campaign. Orders have been given to deſtroy all the Forage, and carry off every Thing of Value into Places of Security throughout Dauphiné and Provence; and we are inform'd that the whole Country is already laid waſte, and ſwept ſo clear of Cattle, Corn and Graſs, that it looks as if it had undergone the Ravage of an Enemy: The Roads that lie among the Openings of the Rocks and Mountains are likewiſe broken and deſtroy'd as much as poſſible, and the natural Difficulties of the Ways very much encreaſed, to render them impaſſable to great Bodies of Men or heavy Carriages. But at preſent we find all our Meaſures to prevent the Approaches or Support of the Enemy's Army inſufficient, ſince we hear they have ſo great an Aſſiſtance at Sea to furniſh them with neceſſary Supplies of Arms and Proviſion, and to tranſport what Numbers of Men or Quantities of Ammunition they have occaſion for. This has already ſpread the Alarm over the whole Coaſt, from Nice to Marſeilles; and broken the Body of our Army into ſeveral Detachments, that are order'd to gariſon our Towns and Forts on the Mediterranean. Five Battalions are poſted at Nice, where there arriv'd lately 13 Companies of Catalans, who are ſince diſtributed into ſeveral Parts of Provence. The Gariſon of Monaco has receiv'd a Reinforcement of 400 Men. At Antibes there are Three Battalions; one of Chambreri, one of Bourbon, and one of Etan; and at Grace the Royal Regiment of Montferrat. There are Four Companies at Frejuls; between which Place and Antibes the Militia are rais'd, and order'd to be in a Readineſs at the Appearance of the Enemy's Fleet. It is ſaid a Camp of 8000 Men is likewiſe to be form'd at Ronnet, a little Village between Frejuls and Brignole, where they are preparing Magazines for that purpoſe. There are Two or Three Companies of Foot at Benjaniere, and ſome others between Soullers and La Valette. At Toulon they are taking all imaginable Precautions both by Sea and Land, being under very great Apprehenſions of ſo powerful an Army and Fleet, commanded by Generals and Admirals that have ſo often ſignaliz'd themſelves againſt France. Fourteen Gallies and Ten large Men of War are appointed to guard that Place on the Sea-ſide; at the ſame time that great Multitudes of Workmen are imploy'd to fortifie it againſt an Attack by Land, Monſieur Langeron, and all the Marine Officers, have Orders to repair thither, and are gone Poſt accordingly. We have Advices, That there are freſh Commotions in the Cevennes, and that the Marſhal de Teſſé has order'd thither two Regiments to ſuppreſs them. That General ſends frequent Expreſſes to Court, being very importunate for Succours. The Forces in Provence, Dauphiné and Savoy, are at preſent computed at 35000 Men; but freſh Reinforcements are daily expected from the Army of the Marſhal de Villars, which, we fear, may alter the Face of Affairs on that ſide. Letters from Spain adviſe, That the Duke of Orleans has cancell'd the Commiſſions of all the Magiſtrates of Valentia, and ſubſtituted others in their Places. King Philip, as a Mark of his Diſpleaſure, has ſuppreſs'd the Viceroyalty of Valentia; and reſerving only an Honorary Precedence to the Duke of Orleans, has given the Government of it to the Duke of Berwick, with the Title of Superintendant-General of Valentia, Arragon and Catalonia, and an Annual Revenue of 50000 Crowns.

From the Duke of Marlborough's Camp at Meldert, June 30. Our Army and that of Enemy are ſtill in the ſame Camps; and on Tueſday our Left Wing made a general Forage towards St. Tron, as the Right Wing did yeſterday near Vos Capelle, without any Loſs. Yeſterday Count Fuencalade, Lieutenant-General of the King of Spain's Troops, arrived here, being ſent by his Catholick Majeſty from Barcelona, the 4th of May laſt, to give his Grace the Duke of Marlborough an Account of the Poſture of Affairs in thoſe Parts; and has Orders to proceed through Holland to England on the ſame Subject. We have an Account from the French Army, That four Battalions and 8 Squadrons of the Bavarian Troops are ordered to be in a readineſs to march towards the Rhine to join Monſieur de Villars.

Hague, July 1. N. S. Our laſt Letters from Paris ſay, The Marſhal de Villars was to make a Detachment of 15 Battalions and 20 Squadrons for the Service in Savoy. Their Advices from the Marſhal de Teſſé of the 21ſt acquaint them, That the whole Army of the Duke of Savoy was aſſembled between Orbeſſan and Coni, from whence his Royal Highneſs had ſent a Detachment towards Pignerol; but that the Marſhal look'd on this only as a Feint to draw him out of his Intrenchments on the Borders of Proyence, into which he ſuppoſed the Irruption was really intended. We are adviſed from the Upper Rhine, That Major-General Janus, who commanded a Body of 2000 Men near Gemund, had been attack'd by a ſuperior Force of the Enemy, which oblig'd him to retire, the Loſs being very near equal on each ſide; And that General Thungen having marched out of Philipsbourgh with a Detachment of 1000 Men, had ſurpriſed 600 French in Durlach.

Windſor, June 23. This Day the Rt. Rev. Jonathan, Lord Biſhop of Wincheſter, was Sworn and Inveſted Prelate of the moſt Noble Order of the Garter, at a Chapter held in the Caſtle for that purpoſe, the Sovereign being preſent; and
